TINC PAINTS .- The Subscribers having been appointed agents of the New Jersey Zinc Company for the sale of their superior Paints, are prepared to execute orders for any description, de-livered in Baltimore at the company's prices, and on the same liberal terms.

The White Paint is warranted pure, and is unsurpassed by any other article in use. It is sold either dry or ground in oil.

The Brown Zine is made only from the New Jersey Zine Ores, and is extensively used as a protection to iron or other metallic surfaces. It is cheap and economical paint.

The Brown Stone Color is unequalled as a dura ble covering for Cottages, Depots, Bridges, &c. The consumption of it is very large, and it has given entire satisfaction.

All the paints manufactured by the company are of the highest excellence, some important improve ments having recently been discovered and ap plied in their preparation, and they are warranted to keep soft and fresh in the kegs, any reasonable length of time. In this respect, they are superior to any others in market.

RECOMMENDATIONS.
U. S. NAVY YARD, GOSPORT, VA.,

January 20, 1854.
To C. E. Detmold, President N. J. Zinc Co., N Y. Sin: A series of experiments conducted by me, with the utmost care, during the past three years, upon all the various paints and artificial preparations for the preservation of timber, have led me to the important discovery that the White Zinc Paint, manufactured by the New Jersey Zinc Company, serves as a perfect protection against the ravages of the marine worm, and the formation of barnacles, whilst no other paint or preparation of any kind combines the same protective effect. I am now preparing a full report on this impor-tant subject to the Bureaus of Yards and Docks, at Washington, and shall send with it a complete series of specimens of wood and metal plates, which were covered with the different paints and preparations, and then exposed alike for an entire season, in salt water, opposite this navy yard; all of which illustrates, in the most striking manner, the invaluable qualities and decided superiority of your White Zinc Paint over all other kinds paints, especially for marine purposes.

You are at liberty to give full publicity to the above stated facts, which are of too much importance to be kept from the naval and commercial world. I am, respectfully, your obedient servant, JAMES JARVIS, Inspector U. S. Navy Yard, Gosport, Va.

"WASHINGTON SENTINEL." PROPOSE to publish in the city of Washington, in September, a political newspaper, under the name of the WASHINGTON SENTI-NEL.

In doing so, it is proper I should make known the principles it will maintain, and the policy it will advocate. will advocate.

It will support cordially and earnestly the principles of the Democratic party of the United States, it does not propose to be the organ of any Department of the Government, except in so far as an independent maintenance of the doctrines of that party may represent its opinions and express its riews.

It will not be ambitious to commend itself to the It will not be ambitious to commend itself to the people by a blind flattery of their rulers. It will seek public support by the bold avowal of the sentiments which are common to the genuine Democracy of the Union, and by the condemnation of all such as may conflict with them, from whatever quarter they may come. It will seek to be (and it will endeavor to deserve the title) the organ of the Democratic party of the United

The SENTINEL will maintain, as a fundamental truth of that great party, that the States formed the Union between them by the ratification of the Constitution as a compact; by which, also, they created the Federal Government, and delegated to it, as their common agent, the powers expressly specified in it, with an explicit reservation of al which is to the States, or to their separate govern-ments. The exercise of any powers beyond these thus delegated, is, therefore, an usurpation of the reserved authority of the States by the agent of heir own creation.

The Sentinel will uphold and defend the Unio upon the basis of the rights of the States—under the Constitution—and thus by sedulously guarding the latter, it will the more effectually strengthen and perpetuate the former. With regard to the exercise of the powers of the Federal Government, the Sentings. will take as the principles of its action, that Congress shall exercise no power which has not been delegated by the Constitution, according to a strict and fair inrpretation of its language and spirit; and that it hall not seek to attain indirectly an object through the exercise of constitutional power, for the direct attainment of which it has no delegation of power. In other words, all powers exercised must be clearly granted, and all granted powers must be used for no purpose, except such as is clearly intended by the Constitution.

In respect to the internal administration of the overnment, the Sentinel will sustain the settled policy of the Democratic party. It will labor to inculcate this cardinal doctrine of Democratic in ternal policy:—that this Government will best promote the freedom and prosperity of the people of the States, by being less ambitious to exercise power, and more anxious to preserve liberty; and by leaving to the individual States the manage ment of all their domestic concerns—while it contents itself with guarding the confederacy from external violence, and directing the foreign policy of the country to the promotion of the common interests, and defence of the common rights, and ionor of the States composing it.

The Sentinel will advocate such a progressive foreign policy as will suit itself to the exigencies, and correspond with the expanding interests of the country. That policy should be energetic and decided; but should temper firmness with liberality and make its highest ends consist with the strictest and the country. The properties of the country is a strict to settle here, may be quickly made an important place of business and greatly tributary to all the leading interests of the country.

be resisted by remonstrance, and, if need be, ky Our foreign policy should, indeed, be defensive; but to be properly defensive, it must sometimes be apparently aggressive. Our administration should be vigilant, watchful, and energetic. The world s full of important inovements, commercial and colitical, deeply concerning American trade and American power. It is time we had an American trade and American power. It is time we had an American foreign policy. We must have it, We cannot avoid it if we would. We have larger interests, and a greater stake in the world and its destiny, than every other people. We occupy the best portion of a continent, with no neighbors but a colony, and a worn-out, anarchical despotism. We are the only people whose own land, without coionial detendencies, is washed by the two great oceans of the world. Our agricultural productions are more varied and more essential to civilized life, and to human progress—our mineral and manufacturing. The confident opinion of the most judicious and human progress—our mineral and manufacturing internal and foreign commerce more extended than those of any other people living under one government. A continent, to a great extent, un explored and exhaustless in its yet hidden wealth s at our feet. European trade seeks the great East through avenues which are at our doors, or must be made through our own limits. Europe, Asia Africa, and the isles of the sea, lying all around us, look to us as the rising power, through the agency of whose example, and ever widening and extending, though peaceful influences, the blessings of liberty, civilization, and religion, are destion of the millions of the world. And shall such a people refuse to lay hold upon their destiny, and act upon the high mission to which it is called? A mission so full of hope, though so laden with responsibility, which, if properly directed, must make our confederacy the harbinger of peace to the warld, as well as the peaceful arbites of its

The SENTINEL will, therefore, advocate a bold and earnest foreign policy, such as the condition of the country demands; but it will advocate it under the flag of the country—nowhere else. Its foreign policy must be consistent with the spotless honor and unimpeschable good faith of the country. To be respectable at home and abroad, and to be great in the eyes of the world, it must ask for nothing

To our future brethren of the press we extend the hand of friendly greeting. The Sentinel is the rival of no press of its own party—the personal enemy of none of the other.

The present Democratic Administration has ou the great principles upon which it came into power; and in its honest labors to attain such an end it will find the Sentings its friend and coadjutor. HISTORY OF DEMOCRACY IN THE UNITED STATES By the Author of the Republic of the United States, &c.

THIS important work is now in press, the firs volume of which will be issued early in the autumn of 1854. The publication of this work will be continued by the subscribers; and in due time they will publish in the several States a complete list of agents who will be prepared to furnish copies promptly in every part of the Union.

That the author may have ample time to prepare his work according to his views of completeness that the publishers may be enabled to issue the numbers with promptness and at stated periods thereby protecting the interest of their agents, the following arrangement is announced in the ful confidence that it will prove acceptable to all, viz To stereotype the next six numbers, making ter in all, thus completing the first volume before any more are published.

The numbers will then be issued monthly, without interruption, to the end. Those who prefer the volume bound will be accommodated without extra charge for binding; and the numbers already extra charge for binding; and the numbers already published, from one to four, will be taken in part pay, if not injured, at their full cost to subscribers.
In announcing this unavoidable delay for a few months, the publishers are not unmindful of the earnest desire of many speedily to possess the work. The necessity of accommodating the au-thor, whose labors are incessant, will appear obvious to all without particular explanation.

VALUABLE REAL ESTATE IN DINWID DIE COUNTY, VIRGINIA, FOR SALE.

A RARE OPPORTUNITY for investment A is now presented to capitalists or a compan ring to combine hotel-keeping with mercantile and general mechanical pursuits.

The multiplicity of my professional and private engagements alone induces me to offer for sale one half of the whole of the extensive and comnodious Hotel and appurtenances at Dinwiddie Court-house—including the land which surrounds the court-house, about 400 acres, the offices and residences, together with all the numerous privileges connected with the property. The Hote has recently been thoroughly repaired, painted has recently been thoroughly repaired, painted, newly enclosed and every way fitted out for the accommodation of the public. It is situated at the county seat, immediately on the Boydton and Petersburg Plank Road, within fourteen miles of the city of Petersburg, and theirly-six miles of the city of Richmond. The South-side railroad passes within eight miles, and the Petersburg and Raleigh willows of this place. railroad within eleven miles of this place. This establishment, with the offices and residences, the estanishment, with the offices and restautes, the store and blacksmith's shop, the extensive stables in complete repair, and capable of accommodating two hundred horses, a spacious and unfailing ice-house, and other convenient out-houses attached. together with a church and a male and female Academy on the land; an extensive Foundry now in process of erection by an intelligent and judi-cious company, and a number of handsome resi-
